

Kick-Arse Funky Pop:
Stories in a lose yourself groove.

The Julie Lamb Outfit is an 8 piece band throwing down bluesy soul-infused kick-arse funky pop originals. You'll lose yourself somewhere between the stories and the grooves and find a high energy, smile-a-minute, infectious vibe.

Julie Lamb is all class, sass and hysterical "funnerisms" wrapped in one feisty package. Hailing from Wellington NZ, she is an accountant by occupation, a musician by pre-occupation... performing has always been her outlet for expression, a way to connect with others on the same wavelength. And while she has a successful covers band in "Two Bluesy Blondes" and runs the humorous choir "10dd" - it is the original material that brings this driven diva to life. Julie painstakingly crafts each arrangement and surrounds herself with musicians who have the expertise to colour the final form.

"Every song carries a unique edge that sets it apart from the standard rock fodder lurking on every corner" Martyn Pepperell, Fishhead magazine.

The latest album 'Ordinary Days' (2017) is the greatest offering yet with amazing reviews. It contains smooth and exciting funk, which along with a guest acapella number, offers the listener an appealing ride with quirky surprises.

"It's great to hear some funky pop-rock with good old fashioned backing vocals and horn parts too. A class act made all the better by the joi-de-vivre it encapsulates and projects" - Bing Turkby NZ Music Magazine

Studio time is booked for later this year for a 2020 release.

"If you can, catch Julie Lamb live" John Shearer, Muzic.net.nz

"There is nothing more astounding than actually getting to play the works with great musicians to a fabulous audience. And laughing - laughter is just right!" Julie Lamb
